Won't Pipe Down
May 3 @ 7pm
Runk Hall - Green Room
UVA

(Hereford and Stadium Road - Plenty of on street parking)

This special new film by four students at James Madison University is about the fight against the proposed Atlantic Coast Pipeline.

Tickets are free, but please register here to save your seat.

The film is 30 minutes long and will include a Q&A with local activists and some of the film makers. The shorter version, released earlier, has already won honorable mention in the student short documentary category at the BEA Film Festival (Broadcast Education Association) and the student short documentary category at the William and Mary Global Film Fest.
